We are back at the Hotel Harry, conveniently located between Central and Museum stations, for a casual and relaxed reunion with former Qantas colleagues and old travel industry friends.

Bring along a former Industry Colleague:

We have always acknowledged the travel, tourism and hospitality industries' contributions to Qantas, and this year we would like to encourage Red Tail Members to consider inviting along former industry colleagues to join in celebrating our times together. Think of those from other airlines, travel agents, freight forwarders, airport staff, wholesalers, hoteliers, car rentals and tourist attractions. Bring them along and reminisce on the comradery we built together all those years ago.
